Programme des Relations Islamo-Chrétiennes en Afrique

Memorandum of Understanding between
The Programme for Christian-Muslim Relations in Africa (PROCMURA)
and
The Coptic Evangelical Organization for Social Services (CEOSS)

All Africa Conference of Churches Guest House and Conference Centre Nairobi, Kenya, from 14th to 20th November 2005

We, the Programme for Christian-Muslim Relations in Africa (PROCMURA) and the Coptic Evangelical Organization for Social Services (CEOSS), Cultural Development Division, met for an exchange programme at the All Africa Conference of Churches Guest House and Conference Centre in Nairobi, Kenya, from 14th to 20th November 2005 under the theme: Peace and Peaceful Coexistence between Christians and Muslims in the context of sub-Saharan Africa and Egypt. After five days of in-depth discussions, reflection, and sharing experiences on a variety of issues surrounding the main theme, it became undoubtedly clear that PROCMURA and the Cultural Development Division of CEOSS share common objectives and similar challenges. As a move to develop and enhance common action to fulfil the aspirations of the two organisations, we arrived at a consensus that both organisations will continue to:

- Work towards peace for sustainable development.
- Promote good relations between Christians and Muslims through dialogue.
- Propagate the ideals of the two organisations, both in Egypt and in sub-Saharan Africa.
- Collaborate with each other in the spirit of mutual sharing of our aspirations, successes and challenges.

In concluding this memorandum of understanding, the (CEOSS) Cultural Development Division invited PROCMURA to visit Egypt to acquaint itself with their activities on the ground, and to strengthen this historic and unprecedented exchange programme in the life of the two organisations.
